

The Power of Poetry Club Rubric

	Novice On your way...	Apprentice Almost there...	Practitioner You made it!	Expert Wow!
Group Poetry Discussion	lists what makes a poem interesting	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ lists what makes a poem interesting ▪ explains why poets write poetry 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ lists what makes a poem interesting ▪ explains why poets write poetry ▪ compares two different poets 	all of Practitioner plus polls an adult for his/her opinion about what gives a poem power
Group Poetry Format	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ three examples of types of poetry ▪ three elements of poetry 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ three examples of types of poetry ▪ three elements of poetry ▪ one original blog post 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ three examples of types of poetry ▪ three elements of poetry ▪ one original blog post ▪ one comment on a peer's post to class blog 	all of Practitioner plus explains why elements of poetry make a poem effective
Personal Poem	follows one of the forms of poetry presented in class	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ follows one of the forms of poetry presented in class ▪ expresses feelings about a personally important subject 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ follows one of the forms of poetry presented in class ▪ expresses feelings about a personally important subject ▪ includes poetry content discussed with group 	all of Practitioner plus uses technology to publish the poem online
Spelling	words are dictated to teacher	uses invented spelling	uses conventional spelling of high frequency words	all of Practitioner plus uses resources (word wall, environmental print) to figure out unknown words