

A Shopper's Guide

A group of French students are traveling to the United States. Like most teenagers, they would like to do some shopping during their visit. Many designer stores in France are also present in the United States; however, we also have hundreds of stores that the French students may not be familiar with. You must create a brochure for the students that compares and contrasts these different stores. You must research some of the major stores in France in order to make your comparisons. Your information will be presented in the form of a descriptive brochure that will compare and contrast stores in France with the stores in the United States.

A Shopper's Guide

		Novice	Apprentice	Practitioner	Expert
INDIVIDUAL	Research	information taken from student's general knowledge	uses some information from textbook	uses information from textbook	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •uses textbook as well as online resources •uses dictionary for additional vocabulary •cultural paragraph about most popular stores and French shopping habits
	Verbs	uses only –er verbs	uses mostly –er verbs with some examples of –ir and –re verbs in the present tense	uses –er, -ir and –re verbs in the present tense	uses –er, -ir, and –re verbs in the present tense and in the future proche tense
	Adjectives	adjectives used	some correct uses of adjective agreement with vocabulary words	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •correctly makes adjective agreement with vocabulary words •uses adjectives to describe stores and clothing 	correctly makes agreement with adjectives from previous units or dictionary
	Comparisons	makes 25% of comparisons using plus que, moins que and aussi que	makes 50% of comparisons using plus que, moins que and aussi que	uses plus que, moins que, and aussi que to make all comparisons between stores or clothing	makes comparisons about stores or clothing in the future using plus que, moins que and aussi que
	Clothing Description	uses 1-2 complete sentences in French	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •uses 3 complete sentences in French to write descriptions •makes 1-3 comparisons between French and American stores 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •makes 4-6 comparisons between French and American stores •uses plus que, moins que, and aussi que in order to make comparisons •uses 4-5 complete sentences to describe each store 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •uses more than 5 complete sentences to write description of each store •describes specific styles or fashions of French stores
	Format	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •description of 1-3 French stores •brochure is drawn by hand 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •some pictures of stores included •describes 4-5 French stores •uses template for brochure 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •uses pictures of each store described •describes 6 stores that can be found in France •uses template for brochure 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •creates original template for brochure •describes and illustrates more than 6 stores •add section to brochure that illustrates and describes the variety of stores in France (i.e. supermarkets, pharmacies, etc.)