

Leadership SuperSkills Reflection Questions

"First introduced in Building Executive Function: The Missing Link to Student Achievement (Sulla, 2018) as skills to build in students, these SuperSkills are equally important as skills for leaders across an organization." (p. 166)

Use the questions below to assess how you have demonstrated strength in each of these SuperSkills. Then consider your own personal next step.

Empathy	Do I seek to understand what others are experiencing and feeling, as well as consider the consequences for others?
Vision	Do I have a deep understanding of where we, as a classroom or school, are headed?
Confidence	Do I believe I have the skills and wherewithal to achieve my goals?
Courage	Do I face challenges directly?
Systems Thinking	Do I seek to discern how all of the aspects of a classroom or organization are interconnected?
Integrity	Do I thrive in honesty and stand by my word?
Intuition	Do I pause to gain a sense of how I feel about a situation before taking action?
