IDE Corp. – We ARE Innovative Designs for Education!

- Customized Professional Development
- Innovative curriculum design
- Leadership development
- Six books on instructional innovation

Key Topic: Learning Anywhere, Anytime

Goal: Designing Flexible Classrooms for Hybrid, Remote, or In-Class Learning

In March of 2020, classrooms that depended on lessons and the teacher as knowledge disseminator failed to produce the same results when students were at home as when they were in school. Learning environments need to be designed using structures and strategies that work as well at home as they do in school — learning anywhere, anytime.

- The 5-5-5-5 approach:
 - The 5 Ps of PBL
 - 5 types of videos
 - 5 types of instructional activities
 - 5 types of synchronous engagement
- Based on Dr. Nancy Sulla's book Reinventing the Classroom Experience: Learning Anywhere, Anytime

Transformational Professional Development Experience

- Option 1:
 - An eight-day immersive workshop experience that includes learning and design
 - Ongoing coaching and asynchronous support across the school year
- Option 2:
 - Four-day workshop introducing the structures and strategies
 - Optional ongoing coaching and asynchronous support across the school year
